Memories-And You Were There

*Fear and trembling start,
Constriction of the heart,
Freshmen year Franklin High School, September 1981.*

*Alice in Wonderland syndrome exists,
"I'm late, I'm late for a very important date,"
First class Freshmen year.
But fall turned to winter,
and winter to spring,
and Freshmen class discovered a most amazing thing,
It was enriching, enlightening, and most of all fun.
Some battles were lost,
but most of them won.
End Freshmen year, June 1982.*

*For all our four years,
our Panthers stood tall.
Basketball, football, soccer, hockey-can't name them all.
The Hockomock league knew,
all our teams were real cool.*

*The next years flew swiftly,
with Prom, studies, and trips.
And as we grew in wisdom,
we gave other Freshmen tips,
Stay out of trouble,
Follow the rule,
And you'll have many memorable moments at Franklin High School.*

*The Graduating Class of Franklin High School-1985, wants the whole world to know
We've loved, cared, listened and all intend to survive.*

*Godspeed to each one of us, keep in touch if you can.
We've shared many happy moments together,
each women, each man.*

*Goodbye—a hard word to say,
but friendships will linger,
though we each go our own way.*

*Thank you to FHS administration, teachers, counselors,
But most of all to us-- The survivors!*

A SMASHING TIME . . .

On May 29, 1982 our first class function, the Freshmen Banquet was held at the Franklin Elks Hall. The disc jockey played excellent tunes all night long, including our theme song "Knights in White Satin." After this great beginning we were all sure there would be more exciting things in store for our class.

UP, UP AND AWAY . . .

Sophomore year was exciting for our class. On May 3, 1983, we held a successful banquet at the King Philip Ballroom. The hall was delightfully decorated with blue and white balloons and streamers. Everyone had the time of his life eating, dancing, and watching the Bruins' play-offs.

TONIGHT'S THE NIGHT

For the class of Eighty-five, April 17, 1984 was our night. All of us that attended the Junior Prom at the Sheraton Mansfield will remember that sensational night forever. The girls in their gowns, and the guys in their tuxedos, danced to the mighty music of "In Pursuit." Although all of the girls looked beautiful, only one girl could be chosen Prom Queen. Lauren O'Brien was crowned queen, while Kathleen Dorsey, Laura Duffy, Karen Gerrish, and Faye Johnson were her court. Like our theme song said, "Our hearts were on fire."

Now We're Cooking

Food, fun, and excitement were the main ingredients of our Senior Picnic. On September 29, 1984, two busloads of singing seniors left Franklin headed for Lincoln Woods State Park. Many took part in a variety of activities, such as touch football, volleyball, capture the flag, and a "rope breaking game" of rug-of-war. The most challenging activity, however, was keeping your food from falling into the fire. This fun-filled day was the first of many exciting events in our senior year.

MADDOG ON MOUNT MONADNOCK

On October 8, 1984, the class of 1985 assembled in the Junior High parking lot to embark on the annual journey to Mount Monadanock. The convoy pulled out at approximately 8:00 a.m., and after a few stops arrived at the mountain around 10:00 a.m. After a grueling two and a half hour climb, the peak of Mount Monadanock was covered with F.H.S. seniors. High spirits and fun filled the air all day. It is a day we will never forget!

YOU HELD OUR HAND

In September of 1981 we arrived at Franklin High School without any unity, confidence, director or advisor. Thankfully, Mr. Merhor, the newly appointed Foreign Language Director, came to the Class of 1985's rescue. As busy as he was with teaching and directing the Foreign Language Department, he found extra time to take us under his wing and advise our class. Right away, with his warm, sincere personality, he made all of us realize that to be successful, the class would have to work as one.

Mr. Merhor is a very special man with his extra efforts, energy, and patience. He listens to all ideas and democratically advises us to choose the best paths. He is willing to go the extra mile to make every endeavor a success. He can always be found making calls, writing letters, and keeping records to keep 85 in motion. Throughout the four years, Mr. Merhor never gave up on us even when we were in debt he was always there through the good and the bad.

Mr. Merhor led us through our Freshman banquet and Sophomore banquet. He carried us through our class ring selection and a very successful Junior Prom. He helped us with M & M, Jewelry, and magazine sales to raise money for our Senior Christmas Banquet, Senior Banquet, and Graduation. But, most importantly he has watched and helped us grow. He has taken all of his know how and passed it on to us. To a very special man, a very special thank you.

With Love,

The Class of 85

ONE WILD WEEK

On Tuesday, October 9, 1984, the FHS spirit week started with a crazy dress day. To dress in the craziest, wildest, most eye catching outfits was the game. Wednesday came and students walked the halls in their best dress up clothes. There was no match for Tom Phillips, Mr. Irresistible, on Thursday, silence is golden day. Getting the girls to talk was no problem for many guys, yet Tom received the most pins. To end the excitement, students dressed in their blue and whites to show how much spirit they really had. The class of 1987 won the title of "the most spirited", but the 1985 seniors won the "loudest" competition in the pep rally held on Friday, October 12, 1984.

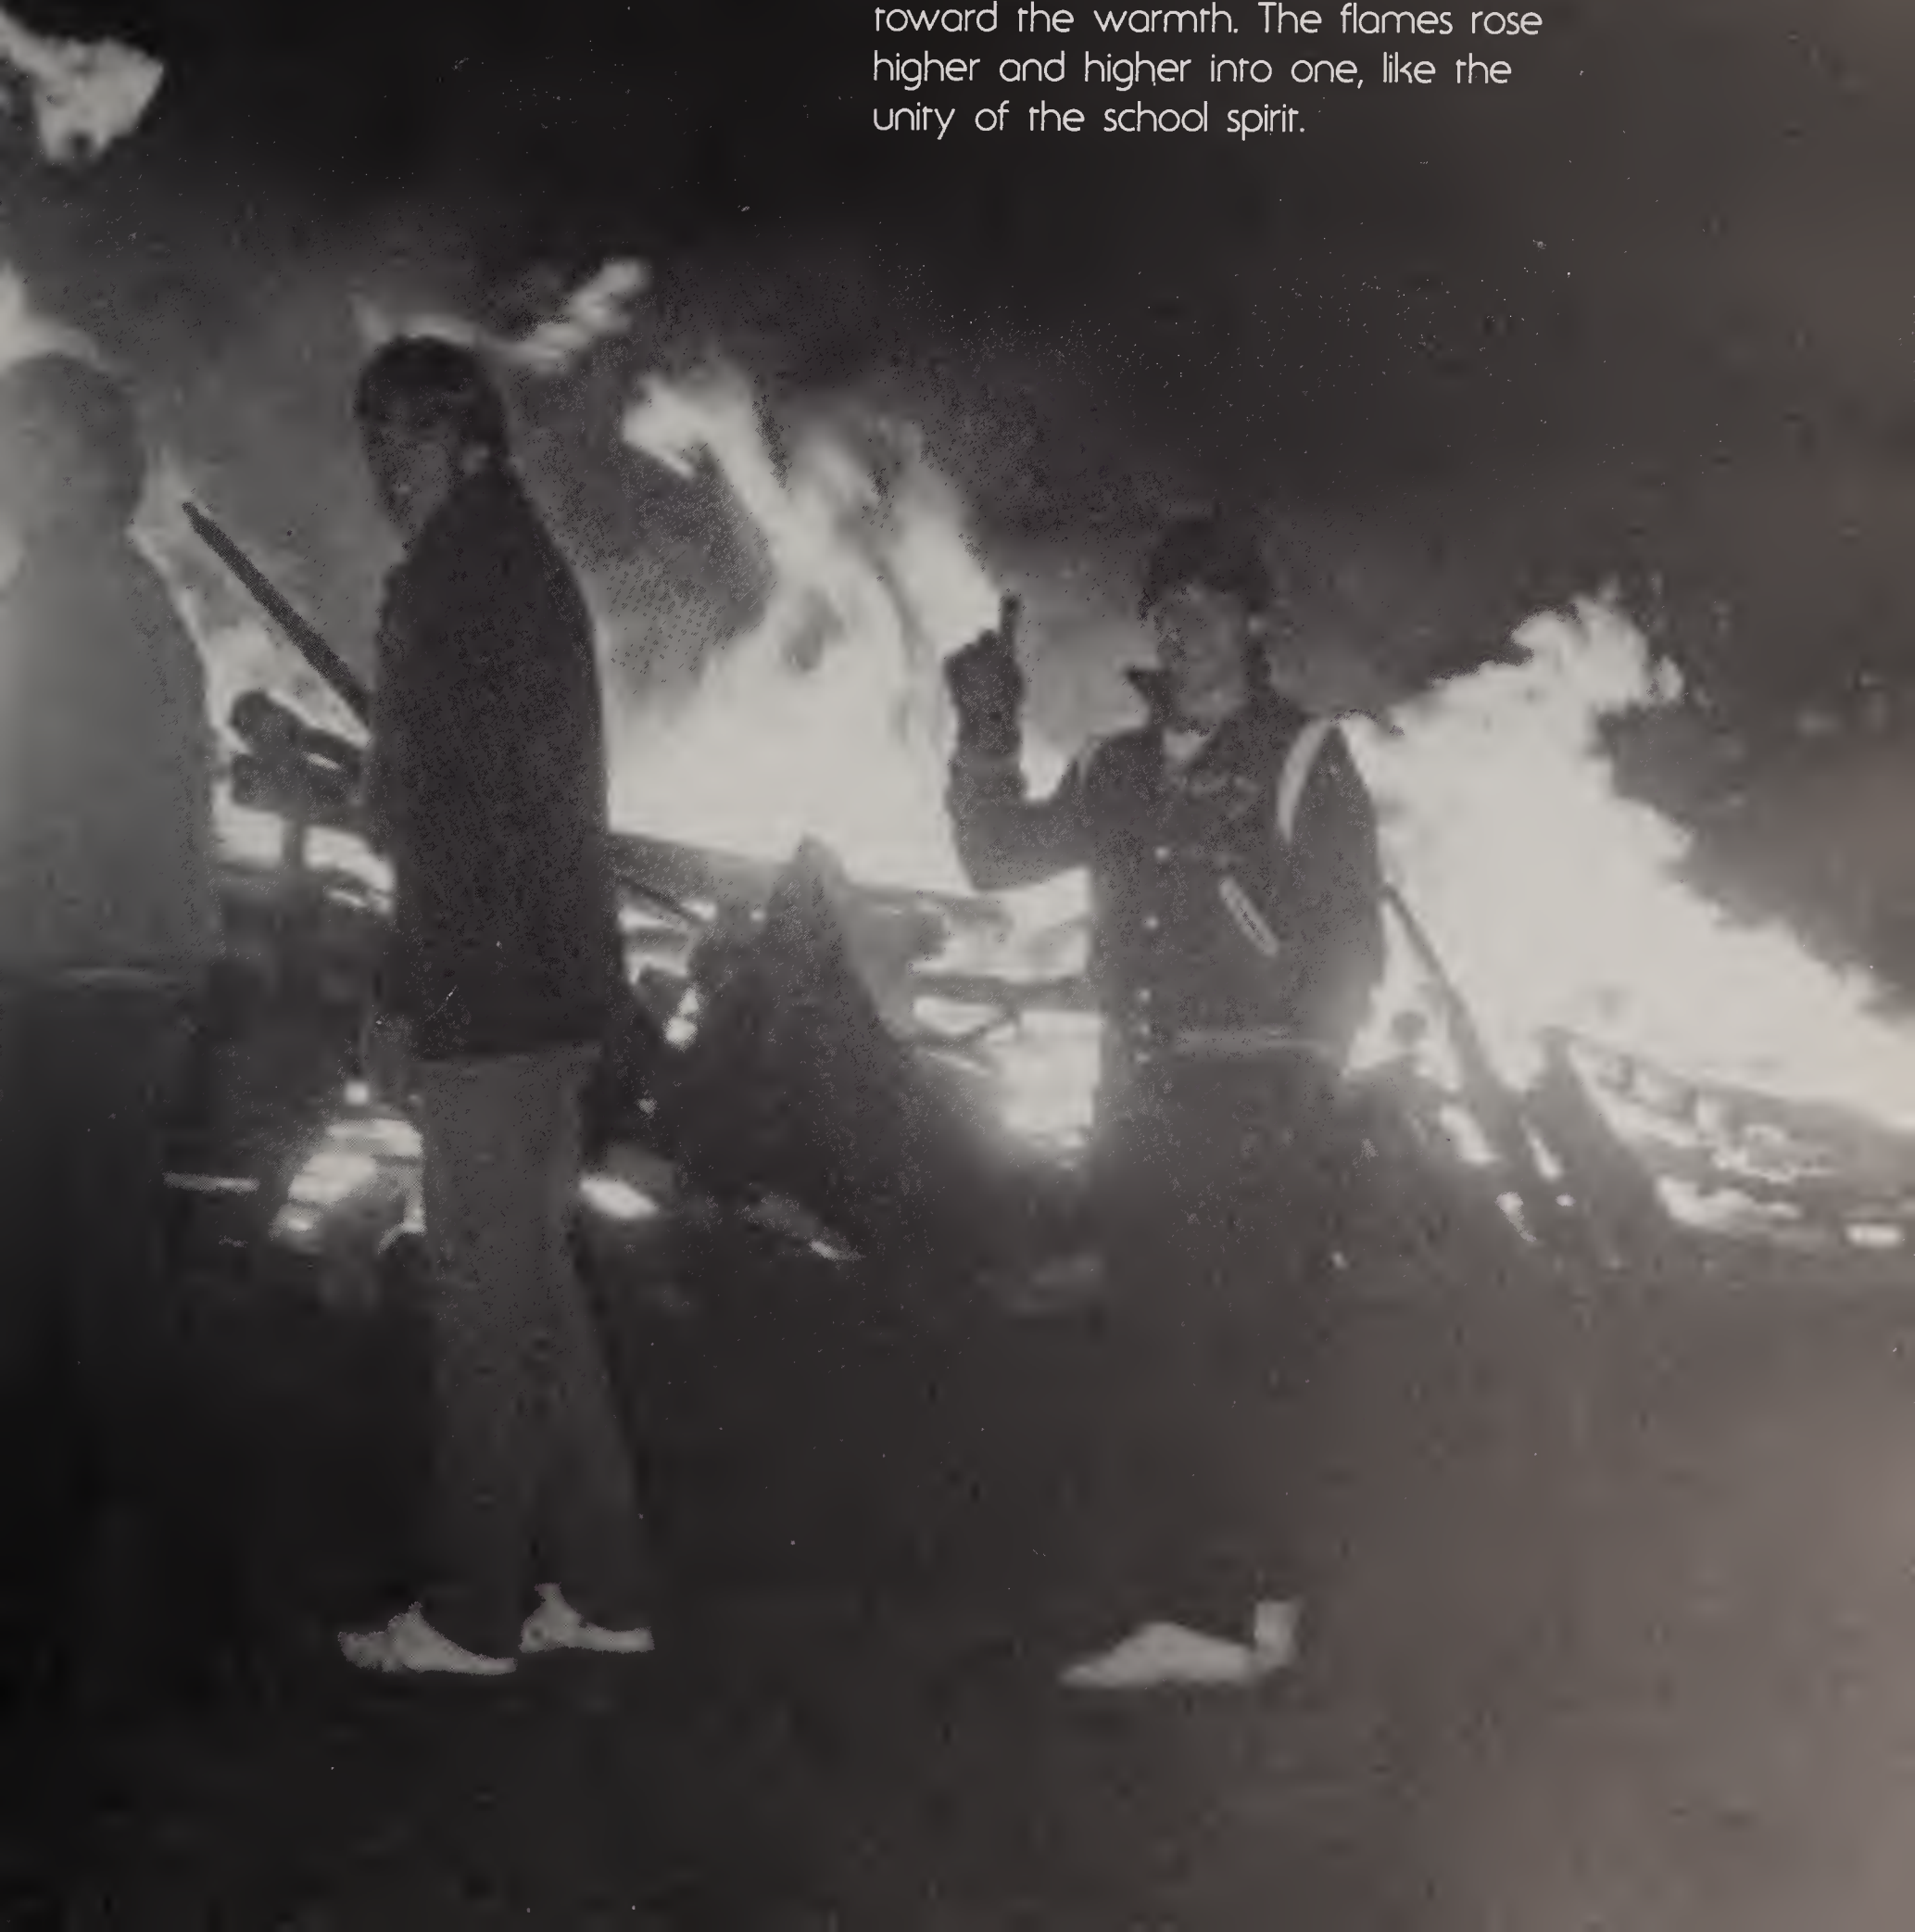

ROARING WITH PRIDE

Following tradition, the class of '85 set out collecting fire wood for the annual bonfire. This was an easy task compared to the job the "juniors" had to do; clean up! On November 21, 1984, the huge pile was lit up on the "hill" in honor of the next morning's Thanksgiving football game to be played against rival King Philip. As students charred, they moved closer toward the warmth. The flames rose higher and higher into one, like the unity of the school spirit.

HALLWAYS

Sometimes, the busiest place in FHS seems to be the hallway. This is the main hall, between B and C house, where all the fun and excitement of each day can be found. Each student rushes to his locker or "locorian" to meet friends, talk, grab books, and then dash to class (hopefully making it before the bell). Most of the time spent in the hall is dedicated to "girl" or "guy" watching. The hallways, in each four minute break, are utter confusion filled with noise, laughter, and people. It is a time and the place to relax, have a little fun and prepare while one watches the wall urchins compete for attention.

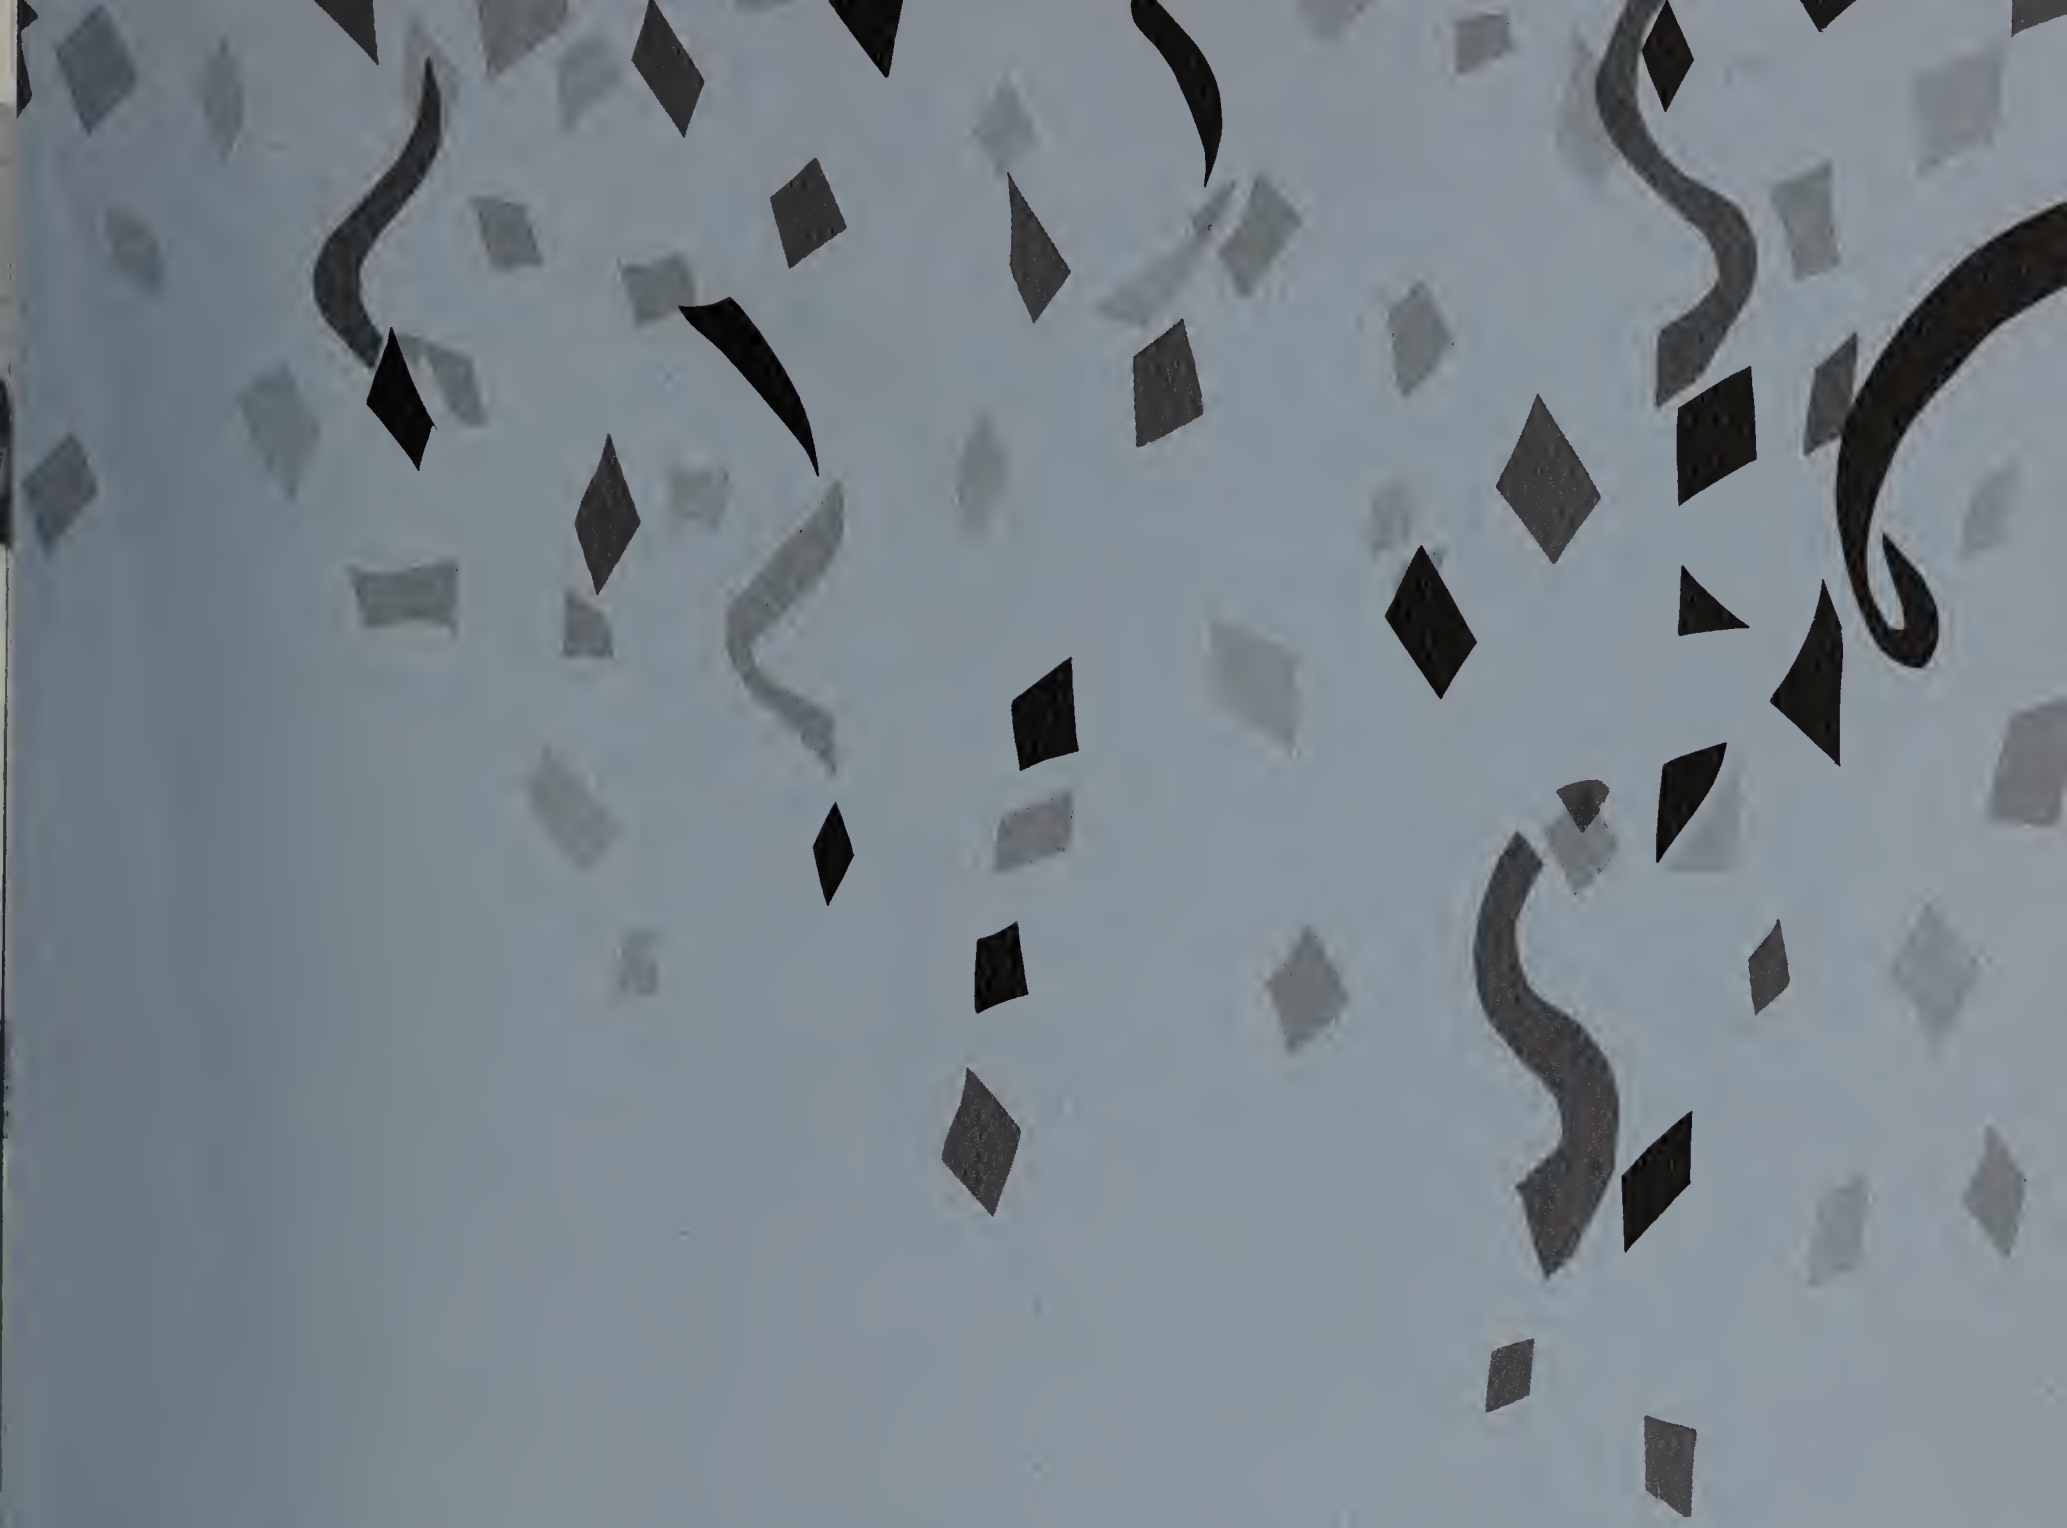

COME AND GET IT! SOUP'S ON!

Everyone, or almost everyone eats in the Cafe. Each period of the day begins with a rush as starving students mob Mary Mirz's snack bar. Mary doesn't mind. She's super, just making change as students rush back to their tables to eat, gossip, and finish undone homework. The new "A la Cart" line established this year by the new supervisor, Ann Ferriera, offers students and faculty a variety of sandwiches, salads, hamburgers, fries, soup, and a daily hot lunch.

ADMINISTRATION

FHS has been very lucky to have a dedicated administration. Through our years here, their direction and guidance have been valuable to us. There have been many outstanding members of the administration. Dr. Suffredini, who came to FHS in our Sophomore year has made many changes that have improved the school. All the other members of the administration were always there to lend a helping hand. We appreciate all of their hard work, support and especially their understanding.

MATH

The Math department, headed by Mr. Campagane, has seen great changes over the past four years. With advances in technology, the department has become heavily invlaved with computers. They offer courses in computer programming and basic computer awareness as well as regular mathematics. The math tutoring program has also been a great success. The math department sponsors the math team which is comperitive in the New England Math League. Twa new teachers have been added ra the department, Ms. Epply and Mr. DeFronzo.

ENGLISH

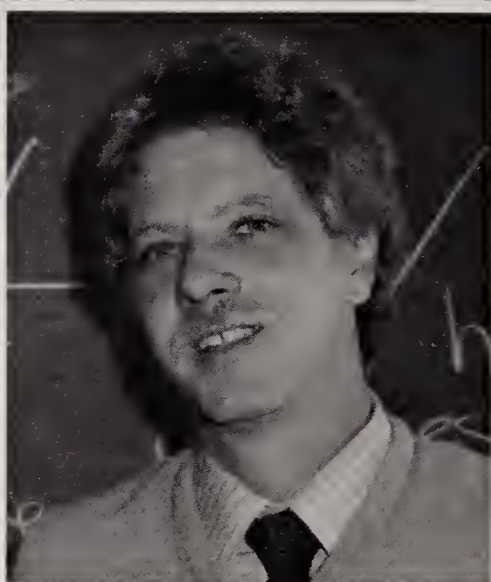

One will always remember his daily journey to upstairs B-house. Here, in the English classes, directed by Mrs. Vosburgh, students encounter literature, grammar, and vocabulary. A great amount of time is also devoted to the analogy, reading comprehension, and TSWE drills in preparation for SATs. The English department sponsors the speech team which is coordinated by Ms. Duncan. This organization enables students to demonstrate their superb speaking skills.

SOCIAL SCIENCE

The social sciences, directed by Mrs. Peters, have played a major role in our educational development. Recently, the Economics and Psychology electives have been extended from half year to full year programs. Also, there has been a new class for freshmen added called Government. These changes have helped the already outstanding student achievements. The class of 1985 has distinguished itself in several ways. John Foster won the Voice of Democracy contest in 1983 and David Fording, Joe Geromini, David Meeker, and Tricia Walsh distinguished themselves in the 1983 Hockomock Model Senate sessions. In their final year, seventy nine percent of the seniors elected a social science course.

At least once during his four years everyone who attends FHS visits the library located in the main hall. All freshmen are familiarized with the media center through their English classes. Throughout the four years, many classes meet in the library to learn how to use the resources for various research projects. With the help of the students library aides, the librarian, Mr. Peters, and the librarian assistants Mrs. Greenwood and Mrs. Rosetti, they keep all equipment in order for students.

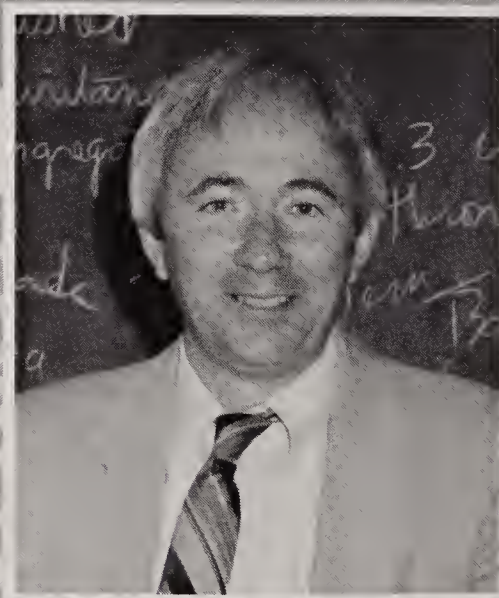

In the 1984-85 year, an Apple computer was purchased, and work started on a Computer Circulation System. This new system will check out and keep track of all materials by computer.

SCIENCE

Over the years, the FHS science department, headed by Mr. Pellerier, has been blessed with many active teachers who have given the students encouragement and understanding. In the past, the science teachers and students have taken part in various extra activities. There have been whale watches, model bridge building contests, friction car races and visits to the museum of science. In the 1984-85 school year, Mr. DeFronzo and Mr. Fiske made a successful proposal to the GTE Foundation for a grant. The money that was donated is being used by the science and math departments to purchase computer equipment and to build model museums in science classrooms.

BUSINESS

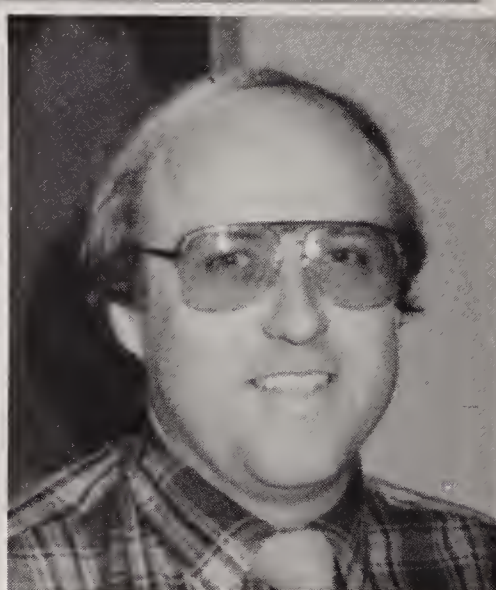

The Business department at Franklin High, headed by Mrs. Reizian, is one of the finest in Massachusetts. Its goal is to provide students with the skills to succeed in college and in the job market. Keeping up with technology, the department now offers courses in word processing and data processing. The O.E.A. is an organization, directed by Mr. Standring, which gives students who excel in office skills the chance to compete on a state and national level. In 1984, fifteen students qualified for national competition.

MUSIC

The music department has been growing in leaps and bounds. Some teachers have left and been replaced, but things are starting to come together again. FHS has found a new music and band director this year, Mr. Rosen. With his help a class called "musicianship" came into existence, this reaches music theory and composition. Ms. Robinson is our full-time choral director and Zeffro Gianetti, an FHS graduate, has recently joined us as assistant band director.

ART

Franklin High School's Art program, taught by Mr. Crowley and Mr. MacPhee, has produced award winning students and exhibits. The Art department provides an annual art show for students in art, home economics and industrial art classes to display their work. Franklin High School also runs a special portfolio class which aids students in preparing work to be used in college applications. Franklin High knows, "You've Gotta Have Arts"

FOREIGN LANGUAGE

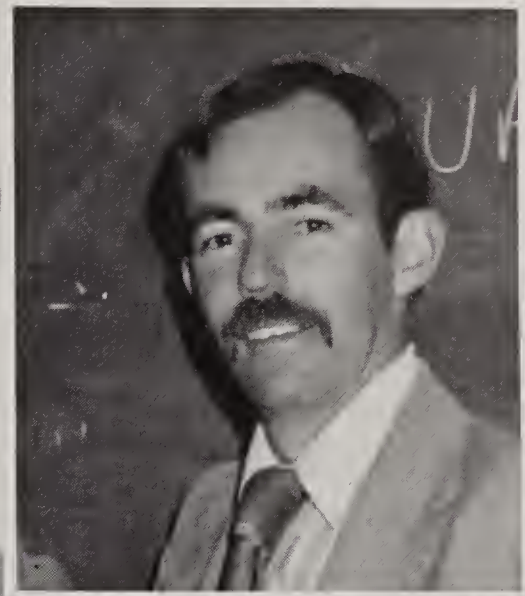

Many students participate in the Foreign Language department, directed by Mr. Methor. In the past four years, there have been foreign language festivals, a mardi gras, trips to France and Quebec, and other activities. In past years, FHS has had a successful exchange program with France. This year, for the first time, Franklin students will go to Spain. We hope that the Spanish exchange program will be as successful as the French program has been.

HOME EC.

Down in H-wing, a lot of activity goes on. Here students make clothing, prepare food, care for children and learn about adult life. Mrs. DiMarco, director of these classes, works hard with her staff organizing many activities for FHS students. The fashion shows, displays, and annual blood drives would not take place without the time and effort these teachers donate.

INDUS- TRIAL ARTS

For years, Mr. Ettenhoffer, the Industrial Arts director, has welcomed many students into the vocational shops. Classes offered here are automotives, metals, wood, and construction. A great many of the items made in these shop classes have been shown in the annual FHS Art Show. The vocational education that FHS students acquire will be beneficial to them in their future.

PHYS. ED.

There have been changes in all the departments in the past four years, but none so damaging as proposition 2½. The physical education department lost two of thier four teachers as a result. Although many of the elective sports had to be dropped and the emphasis turned to team sports, Ms. Richards and Mr. Sutherland have tried to keep the quality up as high as possible. They definitely do have hope for the future. Possibly another teacher will join the staff in 1986.

HEALTH

Over the years there have been major changes in the Health department, coordinated by Mr. McCall. The health course has changed from a one-half year to a full year program for freshmen. The emphasis of the course has also been changed, from drugs and alcohol to a full view of health.

SPECIAL NEEDS

Franklin High School provides a comprehensive support services program for all students. This program, directed by Mr. Frank O'Regan, offers instruction and basic skills reinforcement for students with special needs. In addition, this program offers speech and language therapy, counseling, and occupational as well as physical therapy.

REMEMBER . . .

SPIRITED SENIORS

Back in 1981, when we first walked through the door of F.H.S., we were scared and lost. We were FRESHMEN. Unaware of what lay ahead, the class of 1985 turned to the advice of Mr. Methor. Thanks to his help, and the efforts of our officers, past and present—Dan Foley, president; Joe Geromini, vice president; See Wyllie, treasurer; and Marissa Rozzano, secretary, we have grown into a strong and triumphant senior class. The past four years have helped us to grow more powerful and more united. Through events such as the Freshman and Sophomore Banquets, a very successful Junior Prom, a fun-filled class picnic, and an exhilarating climb to the top of Mount Monadnock, we have learned to work together to face the future; and, more importantly, we have learned at F.H.S. to be happy, thankful for our parents, our friends, and for the excitement of being part of the class of 1985. Now, as we walk through the doors, one last time—not scared or lonely, but strong and confident—we leave as one, with the memories of each other forever in our minds.

1. Our Senior Leaders, back row L to R: Joe Geromini, vice-president, Dan Foley, president, front row: Marissa Rozzano, secretary, Susan Wyllie, treasurer.
2. Advisor: Mr. Mike Methor

JUBILANT JUNIORS

An outstanding group of individuals principally noted for its remarkable reputation and achievements. Throughout the last few years, the Class of '86 has pulled together and has established itself as being a group of winners. And winners they ARE! Through the hard work of their officers and classmates, they can look back on two successful banquets at the Franklin Country Club and Red Snapper. Last year, as sophomores, the Class of '86 accomplished an arduous project, the organization and founding of a SADD chapter at Franklin High School. This program, under the direction of Mr. McCall has proved to be very successful among the student body. In the 1984-85 school year, under the direction of Mr. Stephen Chrabaszcz and class officers Jerome Maddox, Kathy Bonollo, Danielle Balest, and Sharon Duronio, the class has many new feats to accomplish. There has been more student involvement at meetings, renewed enthusiasm, and a dedication that gets stronger every day. Now, as the students prepare to enter their senior year, they are faced with new challenges and obstacles to be overcome. They're going to make this next year an unforgettable one, considering it's their last.

1. Junior class officers: President; Jerome Maddox, Vice President; Kathy Bonollo, Secretary; Danielle Balest, and Treasurer Sharon Duronio

2. Outstanding Juniors: Danielle Balest and Jerome Maddox

SAUCY SOPHOMORES

The Sophomore Class has come a long way since the beginning of their freshman year. With the help of their advisors, Mr. Radford and Mr. Mulcahy, they held a very successful raffle sale, making over $1400, to be used for a class banquet. The money was not used for this, however, because it was so late in the school year. The Sophomore class optimism has shown through the dedication and fine leadership of their class officers- Chris Karmeris, President; Linda Doherty, Vice-president; Kate Marguerite, Secretary; and Tina Lipoma, Treasurer. The class of '87 plans to have more fund raisers, like the calendar sale, as well as two banquets this year. We wish the class of '87 lots of luck in the future at F.H.S.

1. Sophomore class officers: President; Chris Karmeris, Vice President; Linda Doherty, Secretary; Kate Marguerite, and Treasurer; Tina Lipoma
2. Outstanding Sophomores: David Gorbey and Krisen Rappa

FRENZIED FRESHMEN

The class of '88 has a long road ahead. They have a lot to learn and experience. Being the newest members at Franklin High School isn't easy, but with the help of FHS teachers, friends, and upperclassmen, things should be a lot easier. Their officers, Eric Cusson, President; Julie Adiletto, Vice-President and Secretary; and Denise Colella, Treasurer, are planning fundraisers and other activities for the class. They would like to have a dance and a spring banquet, and with all the help from Mr. Chraboszcz, their plans will be successful. We hope that their next few years at Franklin High are the best ever!

1. Freshmen class officers: President, Eric Cusson, Vice President and Secretary, Julie Adiletto, and Treasurer, Denise Colella

Band

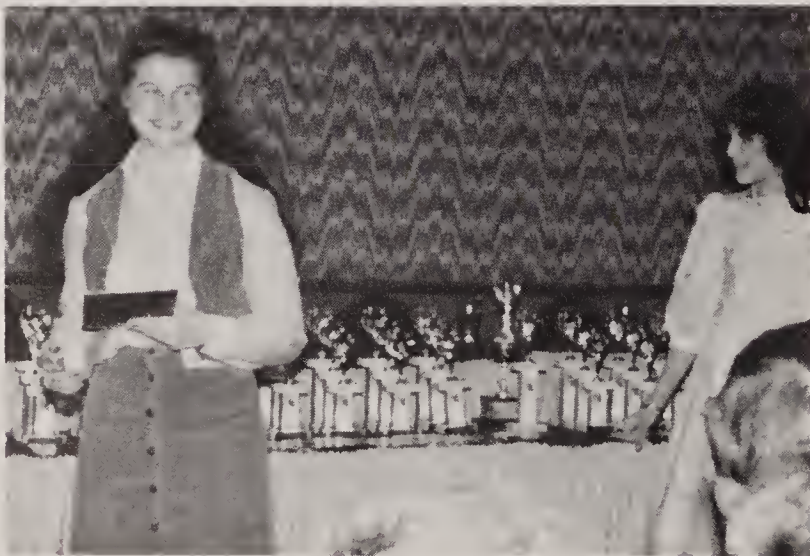

Being in the band for four years can be a satisfying experience. It develops an individual's ear for music of course, but also gives him a sense of direction for the future. By giving annual concerts, performing at art festivals and football games an individual gains experience playing with other young musicians. Collaboration is the key word in band. People sharing their ideas, always with an eye toward improvement. The band takes a lot of time, effort, practice, and, of course, patience. The reward is performing for people who simply enjoy music.

Chorus

The Franklin "notables" are a small, yet strong group of talented singers. They meet during and after school, weekly, for practice and organization. The students perform in school concerts as well as community events, showing their talent, knowledge, and love of music. Each year the group participates in the Central District Music Festival with musicians from other area high schools in the district. It is hard for such a small group to be so successful, but these artists have done alot of hard work to receive their well deserved recognition.

OEA

After a three year absence, FHS became reinvalved last year in OEA an organization which emphasizes business skills and leadership qualities. The OEA members had a very successful year in 1984-qualifying for the Massachusetts State Conference. They went on to become the leading chapter with 29 awards, many of which helped to carry students to the National Conference in Indiana. Besides competing in these conferences, the members of OEA keep busy with various fundraisers such as bake sales and fashion shows to defray the costs of the competitions. Now back for the second year, OEA is proud of its increased membership, looks forward to strengthening the chapter's activeness, and to another successful year.

Student Secretaries

A group of students is selectively chosen from the business department each year for the Administrative Assistant program. Each must have a recommendation made by a teacher to be eligible. The "student secretary" has an outstanding attitude, stamina, understanding and excellent office skills. The program is designed to give on-the-job training for students, as well as secretarial help for the administration.

Library Aids

Many students at Franklin High School earn credits toward graduation by hands on training in the school library. This program is treated just like a regular class. These students learn how to use the library to its fullest and pass on the information to the rest of the student body. During their study periods, the library aides assist Mrs. Greenwood and Mrs. Rossetti doing various jobs. They do lamination, check out books, file, provide magazines and microfilm, and aide other students with research. Aides are also involved with the video systems and the microcomputer. The computer enables them to find missing or overdue books quickly.

Foreign Language Club

The Foreign Language Club has had many activities so far this year. Besides having a successful Christmas Cookie exchange and a lecture on Hungarian culture, they also enjoyed a Fondue Party and a Taco Fiesta. The club also plans to print an International Cook Book by the end of the year. The officers advised by Mr. Merhor were: Christine Foster, President; Susan Wyllie, Vice President; Janine Wheeler, Treasurer; and Karen Fish, Secretary.

Ski Club

With Mr. Chellott; as the advisor, the 1984-1985 Ski Club is very popular. This year, the club has 143 members and spends much of its time on the slopes of New Hampshire and Vermont. Besides the day trips that run from early December to early March, this year's club enjoyed a weekend of skiing at Mount Orford, in Quebec, Canada. To top it all off, several of the members traveled to Switzerland where they spent a week at Interlaken. In addition to alpine skiing, the club also offers chances to participate in cross-country skiing both on and off the grounds of the High School. One of the most popular clubs at Franklin High, the ski club offers a chance for students to have fun recreationally while enjoying the winter.

D.E.C.A.

Deca (Distributive Education Clubs of America) is a special part of Franklin High. The most enjoyable aspect of Deca is the competitions. The competition takes place in three phases and two levels. There are areas of competition all with business background. The first phase is a Regional Conference. It is a two day conference held in February. If one attains one of 8 places at the Regionals, he then goes to phase two, the state conference held in March. There one has to obtain one of three places to go onto phase one, the National Conference. Franklin has always sent at least two people to the National Conference.

Hockomock Model Senate

Franklin High School's Hockomock model senate is a group of very interested students advised by Mr. Johnston. They compete against other area towns by writing, proposing, and trying to pass their composed bills. At the meers, the schools are broken up into small committees. If the bill is passed, by a vote, in the individual committee, it is then proposed to the whole conference. If the bill passes a second time, it can be brought to the Senate for discussion. At the meers, the competitors learn alot about bills, and governmental work.

"MATH" TUTORS

The math, peer-tutoring program at FHS provides extra help and support to those students encountering difficulties in mathematics and a feeling of satisfaction to those students who are willing and able to help their peers, while using their acquired math skills. The tutoring sessions usually occur once a week and are on a one-to-one basis. Most of the tutors are upperclassmen enrolled in algebra 2, math analysis, calculus or advanced senior math, but occasionally qualified underclassmen become involved also. This program, organized by Mrs. Marak, is one of great value and assistance to both learner and the tutor.

Mirage

Franklin High's literary magazine, Mirage, although plagued by rising production costs and other problems, continues to be published. Mirage first appeared in the spring of 1976 and has been published as often as possible ever since. The last issue was such a success that the copies sold out and more had to be printed to meet high demands. The magazine contains original works written by talented FHS students. The work can be anything from an offbeat lab report to an editorial. Also included are interviews, poetry, cartoons, and art work.

National Honor Society

Scholarship, leadership, service, and character are the qualities that all FHS National Society students exhibit. These students are highly motivated and involved. The 1985 officers are President, Richard Frongillo; Vice President, Lyn Dirono; Secretary, Faye Johnson; and Treasurer, Stacey Coughlin. This group held two fundraisers, candy and candle sales. Over 1,000 dollars has been raised this year. The money obtained will be used for the annual dinner-banquet, scholarships, and a proposed trip to Washington, D.C.

Student Council

After the formation of a new Constitution, the Student Council went to work with its 16 members (four from each class). The council met every Wednesday throughout the year and was responsible for many successful activities including the bonfire, Bloodmobile, Homecoming Queen elections, Flower Day, as well as many other activities that helped to make the school year more interesting for the entire student body and faculty as well. Under the direction of Mrs. Ligon and officers President, Micheal Doherty; Vice President, Robert O'Neil; Treasurer, Micheal Savicki; and Secretary, Paula Lodi, the Student Council also met regularly with the Principal and the School Committee to discuss the views of the students on various issues and problems. As a unit, the Student Council worked hard throughout the year and continued to represent the spirit of leadership for the student body.

Math Club

The Mathematics Club, under the direction of Mr. Loper, participates in four interscholastic meets during the school year. This year with its exceptional start Franklin's team vies for a playoff slot against fellow Division I contenders; Sharon, Dover-Sherborn, Westwood, and Walpole. Each member of the team chooses three of the following categories: arithmetic, algebra I & II, geometry or trigonometry, to compete in and all of the members contribute to the team questions. In the past Franklin has had a very capable team and this year it appears that it will be one of the greatest ever.

Yearbook

Yearbook is like no other activity at F.H.S. It is not a club, it is a student run business involving hardwork and thousands of dollars. With Mr. Vaillancourt as advisor, a group of dedicated students learn about the frustrations and responsibilities of the real world while creating a book full of memories. They spend long hours up in the yearbook room, C-201, working together to meet a series of deadlines. Yearbook is like a hand; it must work together in order to succeed. It is true that sometimes parts of the hand do not function correctly and feelings get hurt, but all obstacles must be overcome for a successful publication. Yearbook people are special, and they share, in a unique way, the life of the school.

SPEECH

Few in number, yet bursting with talent, is the FHS speech team. After a long, hard year without an advisor, the speech team has received a new one, Ms. Ducon. With her help these hardworking, determined members are able to compete with other schools every weekend from October to May. The team has been very successful in the past with qualifying competitors sent to state and national competition. Members have been able to travel to Detroit, Chicago, and Cincinnati to compete. This year's team has its sights set on Nationals '85 - a spring weekend in Fort Lauderdale, FLA.

Fantastic Franklin Fans

When an athlete is out working hard and trying to win, he needs to feel supported. Franklin fans love to cheer for their players because when the athletes hear cheers of encouragement it lifts their spirits and makes them try harder. The fans consist of students, parents, and school administration as well as citizens of the town. One way Franklin shows its enthusiasm and love of sports is the wave. The new tradition allows the fans to show their players how well they are playing by standing or waving arms in the formation of a wave. Franklin fans are happy, spirited individuals with knowledge and understanding of the game.

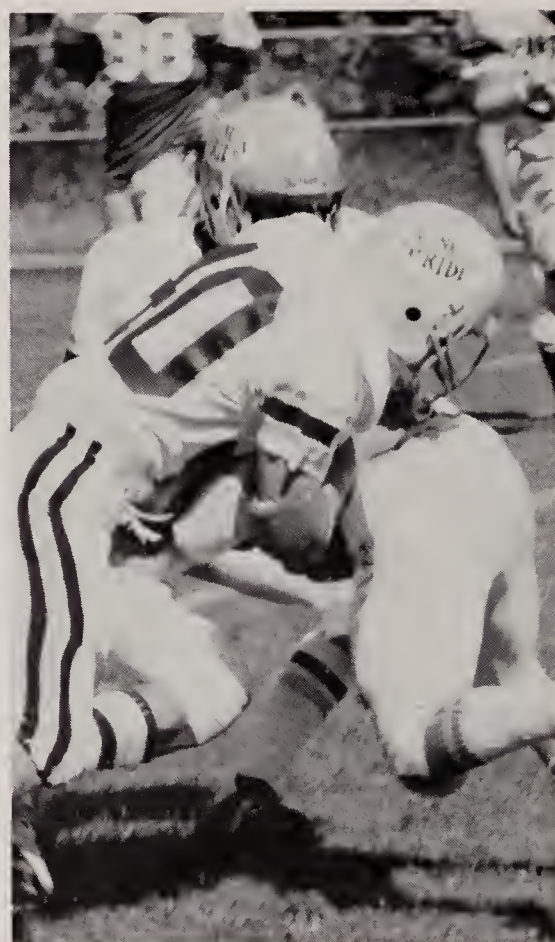

FOOTBALL

With the graduation of nearly all the starters from the 1983 8-2 campaign, the fans of Franklin football had to be wondering about the 1984 football season. And thanks to the coaching staff and some very hard work, the fans were not let down. The Panthers completed the year with a 4-3-1 Hockomock league record (5-4-1 overall) and excited the crowd with some very convincing wins over Medway, Soughton, and of course, King Phillip.

Starting the year as a very inexperienced team, each member's confidence grew as his ability grew, until the Panthers were recognized as a strong force in the Hockomock League.

HOMECOMING

Franklin fans flocked to the football field on October 12, 1984, for the annual homecoming game. Escorted by their fathers, the queen, Devi Hosford and her court, Paula Durand and Amy Streeves stunned the crowd with their grace and beauty. "Mr. Irresistable", Tom Phillips and student council President, Mike Daherry, presented flowers to the royalty.

This half time presentation underscored an awesome display of athletic "PROWESS" as the Panthers went on to defeat the opposing team 6 to 0.

The turning point of the game occurred when the Panthers' defense crushed Oliver Ames at the one yard line to insure this victory for the mighty Blue and White.

GIRLS VARSITY SOCCER

The girls team, behind the strong coaching of Mr. Geysen and the leadership of captains Lisa Di Martino and Kim Hart, qualified for their first ever tournament birth. After a first half of the season that may be remembered by their 2-4-2 record, the girls team pulled together to finish off the season with an impressive 8-5-3 league record. The turning point of the season was a 2-2 tie with Dover-Sherborn. From then on, the team knew that they could play any team on an equal basis. In the tournament, they proved just that. In a first round romp, Franklin overpowered Wakefield 4-1. Then, against Duxbury, the team fell short 2-1 although their efforts couldn't be beat. The season had many high points including Lisa Di Martino's selection to the first team all-stars and Kim Hart and Kathleen Dorsey's selection to the second team all-stars. For all the girls, it was a season of hard work that payed off in the end.

SUPER SOCCER

With the return of 15 Varsity Lettermen, the Boys Varsity Soccer Team entered the 1984 season as defending Hockomock League Champions. Despite an opening day loss to Xaverian, the team rallied to post an 12-4 regular season record under the leadership of Captain Tom "Boomer" Phillips and assistant Captains Richard Frongillo and Matt Sousa. Under the superior coaching of Mr. Bositis, the team lost only two league games, one to Stoughton and one to rival, Foxboro. The season had many high points, including Richard Frongillo's winning the area's scoring title and four members of the team being elected league All-Stars. Then, seeded 13th in the Eastern Mass Tournament, the team suffered a first-round upser to Dedham 1-0. Throughout the season, Franklin's success was attributed to hard work, dedication, and a winning spirit.

With many experienced varsity players returning this year, the Franklin High School Boy's Basketball team was geared up for another challenging season. With the outstanding coaching of Mr. Geysen and the spirit of senior captains Marr Sousa and David Hutchinson, the team wanted to work long and hard hours to prepare for each contest. Throughout the season, despite injuries and upser, the Panter's have never lost their enthusiasm nor pride in themselves, Each player can end the season with pride and dignity, knowing that they each has done his best.

Despite an unusually "short" team (the tallest 5 feet 7 inches), the Franklin High School Girl's Basketball Team was a rough team to beat. Thanks to the experience and expertise of Coach Don Correr and the enthusiasm of senior captains Calleen Donovan and Carla Guidrey, the girls were united and competitive. Led by the top scorers junior; Kathy Bonallo, and senior; Carla Guidrey, the Panthers plowed over many of their opponent advancing them to the tournament play.

On The Right Course: Golf

The 1984 Golf Team, led by co-captains Mark Peterson and Kevin Collins, qualified for the state tournament for the first time in its history. Peterson and Collins, along with seniors Brian Assad and Jim Greene, led the tourney-bound Panthers to a 9-6-1 record. Mark Peterson, with a 39.06 stroke average per match, was voted to the Hockomock All-Star Team while Kevin Collins, who followed closely behind Peterson with a 41.63 stroke average was selected as an alternate.

FIELD HOCKEY

They started the season with a relatively experienced team. This being the team's second year with Coach Long, everyone decided to improve last years record of 2-13-1. They aimed high and reached their goal after qualifying for the Eastern Mass. Division II tournament; they also ranked third in the Hockomock league which helped them achieve their goal.

The great spirit that held the team together this season made their victories possible. The competitiveness among teammates made everyone strive for perfection and though the team will lose 7 seniors, there are enough experienced, hardworking underclassmen picking up their positions.

They worked hard throughout the season, never quitting, even when they were confronted with some real monsters.

CROSS COUNTRY

This year's Cross Country teams entered the season with one of the largest rosters yet. Both the boys and girls teams, under the coaching of Jim Chelorti, gave the Hockomock League a run for its money. In what was the first full season for the girls in five years, captain Eve Pouliot took charge. The boys team, lead by co-captains Damon Gannon and Chuck Sveden, made almost every meet exciting. Damon Gannon, one of the most gifted runners on the team, highlighted the season by winning four of the eight league meets, finishing eleventh in the all league meet, and finishing twenty fifth in the states. Although their record doesn't indicate it now, the cross-country teams are soon to become a force to be reckoned with.

WINTER TRACK

For another year, the Indoor Track League has survived. The Franklin runners are a respectable, capable team with much spirit and determination. They built their speed, strength, and endurance by practicing drills and sprints in the fieldhouse. With the organization and knowledge of Head Coach Paul Trovaro and Assistant Coach Ed Hichborn, the Panthers remain competitive in the league.

Due to hard work, determination, and charisma, the Franklin High School Hockey team has again dominated the Massachusetts Hockey League. With a dangerous first string and a powerful defense, the Ponthers were able to plow over the Division II teams, including tough rival, Canton. Franklin's force has not come easily, it is due to the guidance of Coach Bob Luccini as well as the commitment by each team member to endure long hours of practice and pain. All the sweat and time was well worth it because the 1985 team is TOURNEYBOUND!! For FHSers hockey is not just the sweet glory of victory, it is unity and a sense of pride for all the students and community.

This year's Matmen had one of the best seasons over the years. With Coach Carmen Colace's enthusiasm and skill, the wrestling team is quickly gaining the respect of other Hockomock teams. The Panther's knowledge of "holds", "falls", and "moves" enables them to pin down their competition. This season FHS held sectional and state tournaments in Franklin. The Matmen remained a competitive force and a peril to their opponents this year.

FALL CHEERLEADERS

What is a football game or soccer game without cheerleaders? They keep the cheers going, especially when the team is in trouble and the fans are quiet. They have the spirit and charisma to help even a losing team reach the top. They come through for all the teams during the freezing cold, pouring rain and blistering heat. Each and every one can always be seen with a smile and a word of encouragement. "Spirit, Pride, Determination too, makes them proud to cheer for the Franklin White and Blue!!"

Two of our science teachers with alot of help from seniors and others are making big changes to our high school. Thanks to a $10,000 GET grant obtained by William Fiske and Ran DeFranza, we have a pair of micro-computers on wheels and an oceanography and animal habitat "museum" in two of our large science classes. The micro-computers have been used already for lab simulations, collecting and displaying data, and for filing the information obtained during research. Seniors in James Hasford's World of Construction program have been building walls and framing windows to display ocean fish, desert plants and animals, and New England forest creatures.

Professional artist Martha Huntrigan will be funded by a Franklin arts council grant to paint murals on these walls. Mr. Fiske's Animal Behavior students and Mr. DeFranzo's math and science students have been turning materials contributed by local merchants into displays and projects.

FRANKLIN HOSTS FAMOUS "CELEBRITIES"

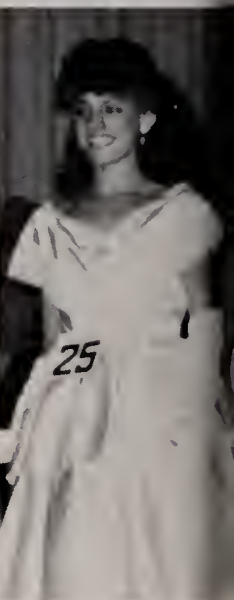

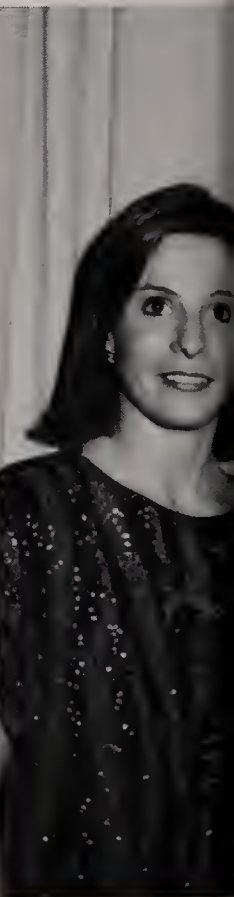

Elvis Presley & Billy Idol look alikes were among the many famous "celebrities" who joined Santa Claus and his elves at the Christmas Masquerade Ball. The event was held on Friday, Dec. 14, 1984 in the festively decorated cafeteria and sponsored by the Jr. Prom Committee. This was the first dance of the year, and the first time the freshmen mixed with the upperclassmen in a social setting. In keeping with the winter theme of the dance, some FHSers came disguised as the Heat Miser and the Cold Miser, not to mention the "sheer family" who probably would have a good time in any season. Due to the Christmas spirit of the students, this dance was a success.

USS

JUNIOR MISS

Filled with anticipation and excitement, the 29 girls who entered the Franklin Country Club for orientation on Monday, September 17, were unaware of what lie ahead. When rehearsals began the following Wednesday, they got a sampling of what was in store: 10 long weeks of practicing jumping-jacks, push-ups, and how to mop the "navy way" Junior Miss was not all work however, the girls kept themselves amused with nightly trips to White Hen Pantry, a group luncheon at the Franklin Country Club, and an extra physical fitness "rehearsal" at 5:30 in the morning. The 25 girls who survived the 10 weeks had lots of fun aboard the U.S.S. Junior Miss, and the show, held on November 16 and 17, was a huge success. While the girls waited backstage filled with nervousness and excitement (and a sense of relief), the judges made their final decisions. After thanking all of the people who helped put Junior Miss together; including Tom Mercer and Jim Sugrue, co-chairmen; Van Perrault and Joanne Mercer, the girls presented flowers to the two most important people involved in the production: Raye Lynn Padula, producer director and choreographer, and Christine DiMartino, talent coordinator.

As emcee Alan Mercer announced "And now . . . the envelopes please . . .", the 25 "junior misses" clasped hands anxiously. "And the winners are . . .

SNOWY SENIOR BANQUET

Nor even a blizzard could hold the class of 85' back from having a blast at the annual Senior Christmas Banquet. Held at DeMetri's December 21, 1984 seniors raked to the sounds of D.J. "Junior Ray" and danced the night away. Even though a blizzard holed outside, inside a storm of fun and excitement brewed. Hats and keychains were given by the senior class officers as little party favors to all that attended. Christmas time is a time to celebrate love and unity and the class of 85' came up shining.

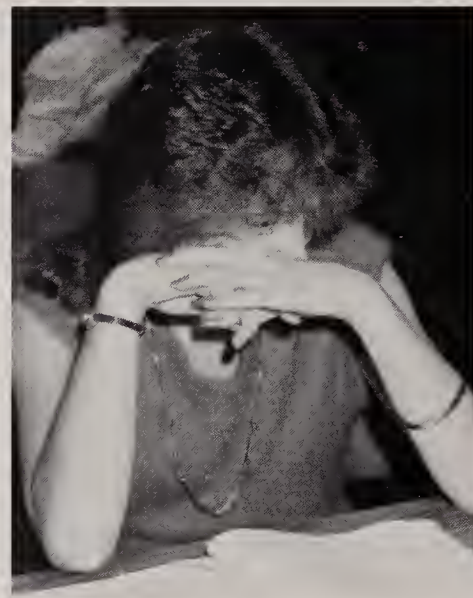

SWEET CELEBRATION

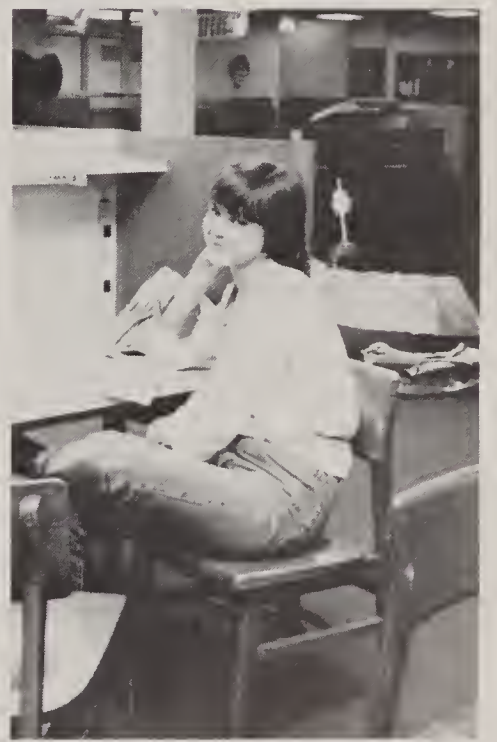

Because the Christmas Masquerade Ball was such a success, the Junior Prom committee decided to hold another dance full of fun and excitement. On February 8, 1985, FHSers fled from the cold to the warmth of the High School cafeteria for the Valentine's Day Dance. Students danced the night away to the dynamic sounds of DJ Junior Ray. In spite of the cold outside, those attending the dance were warmed by the friendship and good spirit evident at the dance.
